That -

(1) If, at midday on the second last Day before exit day, the condition specified in section 13(1)(d) of the Act (the passing of legislation approving a withdrawal agreement) is not satisfied, Her Majesty's Government must immediately seek the agreement of the European Council under Article 50(3) of the Treaty to extend the date upon which the Treaties shall cease to apply to the United Kingdom;

(2) If, at midday on the last Day before exit day, no agreement has been reached (pursuant to (1) above) to extend the date upon which the Treaties shall cease to apply to the United Kingdom, Her Majesty's Government must immediately put a motion to the House of Commons asking it to approve 'No Deal';

(6) The Inquiry under paragraph (4) shall start within three months of the revocation; and

That this House notes that the motion to agree the Withdrawal Agreement negotiated between Her Majesty's Government and the European Union was defeated on 29 March; further notes that the Government must, under the agreement made at the EU Council on

22 March, indicate a way forward for consideration by the EU by 12 April; acknowledges that this House has previously expressed its reluctance to leave the EU without an agreement and therefore calls on the Government to -

(a) assert the UK's existing rights and obligations as a signatory to the Treaty establishing the European Economic Area

(b) indicate to the EU before 12 April that the UK intends to rejoin the European Free Trade Association at the earliest opportunity to make its rights and obligations as an EEA member operable

(c) agree with the EU a further short extension to the UK's membership of the EU during which accession to the EFTA pillar can be concluded and

(d) negotiate with the EU additional protocols relating to the Northern Ireland border and agri-food trade.
