Schede di sintesi

FRANCIA

La cittadinanza (nationalité) francese è disciplinata dal Codice civile, agli articoli da 17 a 33-2, e dalla Convenzione del Consiglio d'Europa, del 6 maggio 1963, sulla riduzione dei casi di nazionalità plurima, di cui sono firmatari Austria, Belgio, Danimarca, Francia, Germania, Italia, Lussemburgo, Norvegia, Olanda e Svezia.

In Francia la cittadinanza può essere acquisita in tre modi diversi.

Il primo comprende sia l'acquisizione per filiazione (jus sanguinis) che quella per nascita (jus soli).

Il secondo modo di acquisizione è rappresentato dal matrimonio con cittadino o cittadina francese.

Il terzo si produce in seguito ad una decisione delle autorità francesi (naturalizzazione).

Filiazione o nascita

Per quanto riguarda l'attribuzione per filiazione, è francese il figlio, legittimo o naturale, di una coppia in cui almeno uno dei due genitori sia francese (art. 18 c.c.).

Analogamente, è francese per filiazione anche il minore oggetto di adozione piena da parte di un francese. La cittadinanza non spetta invece al minore che sia oggetto di un'adozione semplice. Egli ha tuttavia facoltà, sino al momento della maggiore età, di reclamare la cittadinanza francese con dichiarazione, purché risieda in Francia alla data di quest'ultima. L'obbligo di residenza è sospeso qualora i genitori non risiedano in Francia.

La nazionalità può essere richiesta anche da un minore abbandonato in Francia ed allevato da un cittadino francese o affidato ai servizi di assistenza sociale per l'infanzia, purché abbia ricevuto un'educazione improntata ai valori ed alla cultura nazionale per almeno cinque anni.

Per quanto riguarda l'acquisizione per nascita, è francese il figlio, legittimo o naturale, nato in Francia quando almeno uno dei due genitori vi sia nato, qualunque sia la sua cittadinanza (art. 19-3 c.c.).

La semplice nascita nel territorio nazionale non rileva ai fini dell'attribuzione della cittadinanza se non per i minori figli di apolidi o di genitori sconosciuti o che non trasmettono la loro nazionalità.

Inoltre, per effetto della legge di modifica del c.c., del 16 marzo 1998, che ha soppresso il regime della manifestazione di volontà, ogni bambino nato in Francia da genitori stranieri acquisisce automaticamente la cittadinanza francese al momento della maggiore età se, a quella data, ha la propria residenza in Francia o vi ha avuto la propria residenza abituale durante un periodo, continuo o discontinuo, di almeno 5 anni, dall'età di 11 anni in poi. Le autorità pubbliche e gli istituti di insegnamento sono tenuti ad informare le persone interessate sulle disposizioni normative in materia (art. 21-7 c.c.).

L'acquisizione automatica può essere anticipata a 16 anni dallo stesso interessato, con dichiarazione sottoscritta dinanzi all'autorità competente, o può essere reclamata per lui dai suoi genitori a partire dai 13 anni e con il suo consenso, nel qual caso il requisito della residenza abituale per 5 anni decorre dall'età di 8 anni.

Matrimonio

La cittadinanza francese è aperta, con dichiarazione da sottoscrivere dinanzi all'autorità competente, a qualunque straniero o apolide che contragga matrimonio con un cittadino o una cittadina francese, dopo il termine di 4 anni dal matrimonio (l'innalzamento del termine, da 2 a 4 anni, è stato introdotto dalla legge 2006-911, del 24 luglio 2006 relativa all'immigrazione, allo scopo di contrastare il fenomeno dei matrimoni a scopo di naturalizzazione), a condizione che alla data della dichiarazione la comunione di vita non sia cessata fra gli sposi, che il coniuge francese abbia conservato la propria nazionalità e che lo straniero dimostri una residenza effettiva e non interrotta in Francia per tre anni consecutivi (art. 21-2 c.c.). Il coniuge straniero deve inoltre dimostrare una conoscenza sufficiente della lingua francese.

La dichiarazione viene registrata, dopo un controllo di ammissibilità, presso il Ministero competente in materia di naturalizzazioni.

Il Governo può tuttavia opporsi all'acquisizione della nazionalità da parte del coniuge straniero, per indegnità o difetto di assimilazione, nel termine di due anni dalla dichiarazione di attribuzione. In caso di opposizione del Governo si considera l'acquisizione della cittadinanza come mai avvenuta, tuttavia la validità degli atti intervenuti tra la dichiarazione e il decreto di opposizione non può essere contestata sulla base della mancata attribuzione della cittadinanza (art. 21-4 c.c.).

Naturalizzazione

La naturalizzazione per decisione dell'autorità pubblica può essere concessa solo allo straniero maggiorenne che dimostri la propria residenza abituale in Francia nei 5 anni precedenti la sua domanda, salvo che egli non abbia compiuto e ultimato due anni di studi in un istituto di istruzione universitaria francese o non abbia reso importanti servizi allo Stato, nel qual caso il criterio della residenza viene ridotto a 2 anni. Inoltre, per essere naturalizzato occorre avere la residenza in Francia al momento della firma del decreto.

Con residenza si intende una residenza fissa, che presenta cioè un carattere stabile e permanente e che coincide con il centro degli interessi materiali e dei legami familiari del richiedente.

Possono essere naturalizzati, prescindendo dal criterio della residenza, gli stranieri incorporati nelle forze armate francesi; chi abbia reso dei servizi eccezionali allo Stato o lo straniero la cui naturalizzazione presenta per la Francia un interesse eccezionale, nel qual caso viene richiesto il parere del Consiglio di Stato su rapporto motivato del Ministro competente. La naturalizzazione può inoltre essere concessa a chi abbia lo status di rifugiato concessogli dall’Ufficio francese di protezione dei rifugiati e degli apolidi (OFPRA). In ogni caso è richiesta la maggiore età dell’interessato.

La cittadinanza per naturalizzazione non può tuttavia essere concessa a chi sia stato condannato ad una pena detentiva superiore o uguale a 6 mesi senza condizionale, o sia stato oggetto di un decreto di espulsione o di una interdizione dal territorio, o si trovi in una situazione irregolare, o sia stato condannato per atti di terrorismo.

Infine, sia l’acquisizione mediante dichiarazione (matrimonio) che quella mediante decreto (naturalizzazione) richiedono, in forme diverse, una conoscenza sufficiente della lingua francese da parte dell’interessato. Tale condizione non è richiesta per i rifugiati o apolidi che risiedono sul territorio nazionale da almeno 15 anni ed abbiano un’età superiore ai 60 anni.

La recente legge sull’immigrazione del 24 luglio 2006, ha inserito nel codice civile (articoli 21-28 e 21-29) alcune disposizioni che istituiscono la cerimonia di accoglienza nella cittadinanza francese, che viene organizzata, dal rappresentante dello Stato in ogni dipartimento, ogni sei mesi, cui sono invitate naturalmente le persone che abbiano acquisito la nazionalità francese di pieno diritto nei sei mesi precedenti la cerimonia ed i deputati e i senatori eletti nel dipartimento.

Effetto collettivo dell’acquisizione

A condizione che il suo nome sia menzionato nel decreto di naturalizzazione o nella dichiarazione di acquisizione, il figlio minore, legittimo o naturale, o il bambino oggetto di adozione piena, diventa francese di pieno diritto se uno dei due genitori ha acquisito la cittadinanza francese, purché egli abbia la stessa residenza abituale del genitore in questione. In caso di separazione o divorzio dei genitori, il bambino acquisisce la cittadinanza francese se risiede abitualmente o alternativamente con il genitore che diventa francese (art. 22-1 c.c.).

Doppia cittadinanza

Il possesso di una o più altre nazionalità non ha, in linea di principio, alcuna incidenza sulla cittadinanza francese.

La legge non richiede infatti che uno straniero diventato francese rinunci alla sua cittadinanza di origine o che un francese diventato straniero rinunci alla cittadinanza francese, salvo che fra gli Stati firmatari della Convenzione del Consiglio d'Europa, del 6 maggio 1963, sulla riduzione dei casi di nazionalità plurima. Questa convenzione prevede infatti la perdita automatica della cittadinanza precedente.

La Francia non stabilisce distinzioni fra coloro che hanno una doppia cittadinanza (non importa se straniero divenuto francese o francese divenuto straniero) e tutti gli altri francesi per quanto riguarda i diritti e i doveri legati alla cittadinanza. Tuttavia, un francese che possiede la doppia cittadinanza non può far valere la propria cittadinanza francese dinanzi alle autorità dell'altro Stato di cui possiede la cittadinanza, qualora risieda nel suo territorio.

Perdita della cittadinanza

La perdita della cittadinanza francese si verifica generalmente per atto volontario e deriva da una dichiarazione o da una decisione della pubblica autorità.

Casi di rinuncia alla cittadinanza francese sono previsti dal Codice civile, in presenza di talune condizioni, a favore dei figli nati all'estero da un solo genitore francese o nati in Francia da un solo genitore nato in Francia.

Qualsiasi maggiorenne residente abitualmente all'estero, che abbia acquisito volontariamente una cittadinanza straniera, può, in presenza di talune condizioni, perdere la cittadinanza francese con dichiarazione sottoscritta davanti all'autorità competente.

In caso di matrimonio con uno straniero, il coniuge francese può rinunciare alla cittadinanza francese con dichiarazione, a condizione che abbia acquisito la cittadinanza del coniuge e che la residenza abituale della coppia sia stata fissata all'estero.

In ogni caso i francesi minori di 35 anni non possono dichiarare la perdita della cittadinanza se non sono in regola con gli obblighi del servizio militare.

Le persone che non sono nelle condizioni previste dalla legge per la perdita della nazionalità per dichiarazione, possono essere autorizzate con decreto qualora abbiano acquisito la cittadinanza di un paese straniero.

Il codice civile prevede anche la decadenza della cittadinanza in caso di condanna per reati di particolare gravità, come ad esempio terrorismo o attentato agli interessi fondamentali della nazione. Il provvedimento di decadenza è adottato con decreto previo parere del Consiglio di Stato, ma non deve causare casi di apolidia.

È possibile inoltre la reintegrazione nella nazionalità per le persone che l'abbiano perduta per matrimonio con uno straniero o per acquisizione di cittadinanza straniera, qualora ne facciano richiesta. La condizione per ottenere di nuovo la nazionalità è quella di aver conservato dei legami, con la Francia, di ordine culturale, professionale, economico e familiare.

GERMANIA

La Legge fondamentale tedesca (Grundgesetz) del 1949, all'articolo 16, comma 1, sancisce il principio della irrevocabilità della cittadinanza tedesca, specificando essa si perde soltanto per effetto legge e, nel caso il soggetto interessato manifesti una volontà contraria, soltanto per impedire che egli diventi apolide. Tra le disposizioni transitorie e finali della Legge fondamentale vi è poi l'articolo 116 che reca la definizione di "tedesco", inteso come "colui che possiede la cittadinanza tedesca o colui che è stato accolto, come rifugiato o espulso di nazionalità tedesca o come suo coniuge o discendente, nel territorio del Reich tedesco secondo lo status del 31 dicembre 1937". A coloro che sono stati privati della cittadinanza tedesca tra il 30 gennaio 1933 e l'8 maggio 1945, per motivi politici, razziali o religiosi, è nuovamente concessa la cittadinanza sulla base di una richiesta di naturalizzazione. La stessa possibilità è offerta anche ai discendenti. Non sono considerati privi di cittadinanza coloro che dopo la fine della guerra hanno preso la residenza in Germania e non hanno manifestato una volontà contraria.

La disciplina legislativa federale in materia di cittadinanza è contenuta principalmente nella Legge sulla cittadinanza (Staatsangehörigkeitsgesetz – StAG)[\[1\]](#) del 22 luglio 1913 che, negli ultimi anni, ha subito tre rilevanti riforme. La prima, attuata con la Legge di riforma del diritto sulla cittadinanza del 15 luglio 1999 ed entrata in vigore il 1° gennaio 2000, ha introdotto quale ulteriore condizione per l'acquisizione della cittadinanza tedesca il principio del luogo di nascita (ius soli o Geburtsortsprinzip), in aggiunta al principio di filiazione (ius sanguinis o Abstammungsprinzip).

Con la Legge sull'immigrazione (Zuwanderungsgesetz)[\[2\]](#) del 30 luglio 2004, entrata in vigore il 1° gennaio 2005, la regolamentazione del diritto alla naturalizzazione, prima contenuta nell'Ausländergesetz[\[3\]](#), è stata trasposta quasi integralmente in alcuni articoli della Legge sulla cittadinanza.

Infine, l'articolo 5 della Legge di attuazione delle direttive dell'Unione europea in materia di diritto d'asilo e di soggiorno (Gesetz zur Umsetzung von aufenthalts- und asylrechtlichen Richtlinien der Europäischen Union)[\[4\]](#), del 19 agosto 2007, entrata in vigore il 28 agosto 2007, ha introdotto una nuova modalità di acquisizione della cittadinanza tedesca e ha modificato la normativa riguardante la naturalizzazione degli stranieri residenti in Germania.

Per quanto riguarda, più specificamente, le modalità di acquisizione della cittadinanza tedesca, la Legge sulla cittadinanza, all'articolo 3, prevede che si possa diventare cittadini tedeschi per nascita, per adozione, per naturalizzazione e, a partire dalla riforma del 2007, nel caso in cui il soggetto interessato abbia ricevuto il trattamento di cittadino tedesco per un lungo periodo (Ersitzung).

In base alle nuove disposizioni, infatti, può acquisire la cittadinanza tedesca anche colui che per dodici anni è stato considerato dalla pubblica amministrazione come un cittadino della Repubblica federale senza esserlo (§ 3 comma 2). Finalità della norma è quella di tutelare la certezza del diritto, soprattutto nei casi in cui la cittadinanza tedesca costituisce una condizione necessaria per l'esercizio di ulteriori diritti, ad esempio il diritto di voto e quelli relativi alla disciplina del pubblico impiego.

Gli Uffici della pubblica amministrazione cui la legge fa riferimento sono da individuare nelle autorità statali e dei Länder competenti in materia di cittadinanza (per gli affari consolari, per il rilascio del passaporto e della carta di identità, per l'anagrafe e lo stato civile). Il riconoscimento dello status di cittadino tedesco può avvenire attraverso il rilascio di documenti che attestino l'identità tedesca del titolare (il passaporto o la carta di identità), l'iscrizione nelle liste elettorali per le elezioni nazionali, regionali e comunali, l'assunzione nell'ambito del pubblico impiego o l'abilitazione ad una determinata professione. Tale diritto si estende anche ai discendenti.

La cittadinanza per nascita e per adozione

In base al principio di filiazione (ius sanguinis o Abstammungsprinzip), un bambino acquisisce la cittadinanza tedesca alla nascita se almeno uno dei suoi genitori è cittadino tedesco (§ 4, comma 1). E', tuttavia, necessario che la filiazione sia valida ai sensi della legge federale. Se, per esempio, la nazionalità tedesca è trasmessa dal padre e se questi non è sposato con la madre del bambino, è necessario il riconoscimento (Anerkennung) o la constatazione di paternità (Feststellung der Vaterschaft) prima che il minore abbia compiuto il ventitreesimo anno di età.

Dal 1° gennaio 2000 acquisiscono automaticamente la cittadinanza tedesca non solo i figli di cittadini tedeschi, ma anche i figli di stranieri che nascono in Germania (ius soli o Geburtsortsprinzip), purché almeno uno dei genitori risieda abitualmente e legalmente nel paese da almeno otto anni e goda del diritto di soggiorno a tempo indeterminato (unbefristetes Aufenthaltsrecht) o, qualora sia un cittadino svizzero, sia in possesso di un permesso di soggiorno (Aufenthaltserlaubnis) rilasciato sulla base dell'accordo del 21 giugno 1999 tra la Comunità europea e i suoi Stati membri, da una parte, e la Confederazione elvetica, dall'altra, riguardante la libertà di circolazione (§ 4, comma 3).

Un bambino di genitori ignoti (Findelkind) che viene trovato in territorio tedesco è considerato figlio di cittadini tedeschi fino a prova contraria (§ 4, comma 2).

L'acquisizione della cittadinanza tedesca viene iscritta nel registro delle nascite (Geburtenregister) nel quale è stata annotata la nascita del minore (§ 4, comma 3).

I bambini nati prima del 1° luglio 1993 da padre tedesco e madre straniera possono acquisire la cittadinanza tedesca mediante una dichiarazione, da effettuarsi entro il compimento del ventitreesimo anno di età, se il riconoscimento o l'accertamento della paternità sono validi per la legge tedesca e se il minore stesso è residente legalmente e stabilmente in Germania da tre anni (§ 5).

I bambini che divengono cittadini tedeschi in base al principio del luogo di nascita acquisiscono contemporaneamente anche la nazionalità dei genitori stranieri. Dal compimento della maggiore età hanno cinque anni di tempo per dichiarare la loro volontà di mantenere la nazionalità tedesca o quella del paese d'origine dei genitori. Tale dichiarazione deve avvenire in forma scritta (§ 29, comma 1). Nel caso in cui scelgano di conservare la nazionalità dei propri genitori o non facciano alcuna dichiarazione ufficiale entro i termini stabiliti, essi perdono la cittadinanza tedesca (§ 29, comma 2). Qualora l'interessato voglia mantenere la nazionalità tedesca deve dimostrare, entro gli stessi termini, di aver perso quella straniera (comma 3). Immediatamente dopo il compimento del diciottesimo anno età il soggetto interessato è informato dalle autorità competenti sullo svolgimento della procedura.

L'obbligo di rinuncia alla doppia cittadinanza non riguarda i minori che hanno acquisito la nazionalità tedesca in base al principio di filiazione. In tale caso, essi ottengono la cittadinanza di entrambi i genitori.

Infine, il paragrafo 6 disciplina l'acquisizione della cittadinanza attraverso l'adozione di un minore (Annahme als Kind) da parte di un cittadino tedesco. Tale diritto si estende anche ai suoi discendenti.

La cittadinanza per naturalizzazione

La legge riforma del 2007 ha modificato le norme riguardanti la naturalizzazione (Einbürgerung) degli stranieri residenti in Germania e ne ha semplificato le procedure.

Le disposizioni sulla naturalizzazione sono contenute principalmente negli articoli da 8 a 16, da 36 a 38, 40b e 40c della Legge sulla cittadinanza.

Per tutti coloro che non sono tedeschi per diritto di nascita, ma che vogliono diventarlo perché stabilitisi in Germania, la naturalizzazione rappresenta la via principale per poter acquisire la cittadinanza tedesca. La naturalizzazione non avviene in modo automatico, ma previa un'apposita richiesta da parte dell'interessato.

Nella fattispecie della naturalizzazione rientrano gli stranieri residenti stabilmente e regolarmente in Germania, i coniugi stranieri di cittadini tedeschi e i figli minori.

Ai sensi del paragrafo 10 della Legge sulla cittadinanza, uno straniero che desideri ottenere la naturalizzazione deve possedere i seguenti requisiti:

- otto anni di residenza stabile e legale sul territorio federale tedesco [il termine non si applica al coniuge straniero e ai figli minori, che possono essere naturalizzati contemporaneamente al richiedente anche se risiedono legalmente in Germania da un periodo di tempo inferiore (§ 10, comma 2), e non si interrompe per soggiorni all'estero fino a sei mesi (§ 12b, comma 1)];
- il possesso della capacità di agire (minimo 16 anni), in conformità con le disposizioni contenute nell'articolo 80, comma 1, della Legge sul soggiorno, o una rappresentanza legale;
- il rispetto e l'osservanza dell'ordinamento libero e democratico stabilito nella Legge fondamentale tedesca;
- il diritto di soggiorno a tempo indeterminato o un permesso di soggiorno rilasciato ai sensi del paragrafo 4, comma 3, della Legge sulla cittadinanza o un regolare permesso di soggiorno rilasciato per uno degli scopi previsti agli articoli 16, 17, 20, 22, 23, comma 1, 23a, 24 e 25, comma da 3 a 5 della Legge sul soggiorno;

- la capacità di assicurare il mantenimento proprio e dei familiari a carico, senza far ricorso a sussidi sociali (Sozialhilfe) o all'indennità di disoccupazione(Arbeitslosengeld II). Con la riforma del 2007, anche le persone al di sotto dei 23 anni che aspirano alla naturalizzazione devono provvedere al proprio sostentamento senza ricorrere ai sostegni economici previsti nel Secondo Libro del Codice sociale (Sicurezza di base per le persone in cerca di lavoro) e nel Dodicesimo Libro del Codice Sociale (Pubblica assistenza);
- la rinuncia o la perdita della cittadinanza d'origine. La legge di riforma del 19 agosto 2007 consente, tuttavia, a tutti i cittadini dell'Unione europea e della Svizzera di conservare la propria cittadinanza d'origine (§ 12, comma 2);
- l'assenza di condanne penali per aver compiuto atti contrari alla legge o di misure di correzione e di sicurezza. La recente riforma ha reso più rigorosi i limiti per i reati penali minori: è escluso dalla procedura di naturalizzazione chi è stato condannato ad una pena pecuniaria che superi i 90 tassi giornalieri o una pena detentiva di durata superiore ai tre mesi;
- la dimostrazione di una sufficiente conoscenza della lingua tedesca;
- la conoscenza dell'ordinamento sociale e giuridico tedesco nonché delle condizioni di vita in Germania a cui il candidato alla naturalizzazione deve conformarsi.

La conoscenza della lingua tedesca rappresenta una delle condizioni fondamentali per ottenere la cittadinanza e per integrarsi nel tessuto sociale e politico del paese. La riforma del 2007 ha stabilito che per ottenere la naturalizzazione il candidato deve superare un esame scritto ed orale di lingua tedesca e conseguire il Zertifikat Deutsch, equivalente al livello B1 del Quadro Comune Europeo di Riferimento per la conoscenza delle Lingue (per i minori fino a 16 anni è sufficiente una conoscenza della lingua adeguata alla loro età). Sono escluse da tale obbligo le persone impedisce da malattie fisiche o mentali.

L'articolo 10, comma 3 della Legge sulla cittadinanza prevede la possibilità per gli stranieri che abbiano frequentato e superato con successo un corso di integrazione (Integrationskurs) di ridurre di un anno (da otto a sette) il periodo minimo di soggiorno richiesto per ottenere la naturalizzazione. Con la recente legge di modifica della normativa sulla cittadinanza, tale periodo può essere ulteriormente ridotto a sei anni qualora lo straniero dimostri di aver compiuto grandi sforzi di integrazione, come, ad esempio, quello di aver superato il livello B1 di conoscenza della lingua tedesca richiesto per legge.

Infine, a partire dal 1 settembre 2008 è obbligatorio dimostrare di conoscere l'ordinamento sociale e giuridico tedesco nonché le condizioni di vita in Germania attraverso il superamento di un test di naturalizzazione (Einbürgerungstest), dal quale sono comunque esonerate le persone impeditate da malattie fisiche o mentali. Per la preparazione dell'esame sono messi a disposizione corsi di naturalizzazione (Einbürgerungskurse) la cui partecipazione, tuttavia, non è obbligatoria (§ 10, comma 5).

Le disposizioni relative alla naturalizzazione degli stranieri si applicano anche nel caso di matrimonio o di convivenza registrata (Lebenspartnerschaft) con cittadini tedeschi, fatispecie detta della “naturalizzazione dovuta” (Soll-Einbürgerung o In-der-Regel Einbürgerung) regolata dal § 9. La naturalizzazione è concessa, nel rispetto delle condizioni previste al § 8, qualora si sia persa o si rinunci alla cittadinanza d'origine e si dimostri la conoscenza delle condizioni di vita in Germania nonché della lingua tedesca. Anche i figli minori dei coniugi o dei conviventi registrati stranieri possono essere naturalizzati. In questo caso, il periodo di soggiorno richiesto per presentare la relativa richiesta è ridotto da otto a tre anni, mentre la durata del matrimonio o della convivenza registrata deve essere di almeno due anni.

Per coloro ai quali viene riconosciuto il diritto di asilo ai sensi dell'art. 16a della Legge fondamentale, per i rifugiati ufficialmente riconosciuti in base alla Convenzione di Ginevra e per gli apolidi la procedura è più breve, essendo sufficienti sei anni di soggiorno per ottenere la cittadinanza.

I §§ 13 e 14 della Legge sulla cittadinanza riguardano, infine, altre due fatispecie di “naturalizzazione discrezionale” (Kann-Einbürgerung o Ermessenseinbürgerung). Si tratta, rispettivamente, della naturalizzazione di ex cittadini tedeschi che risiedono abitualmente all'estero e dei loro figli minori legittimi e adottivi, e della naturalizzazione di cittadini stranieri che vivono all'estero e mantengono legami particolari con la Germania, tali da giustificare la naturalizzazione.

Le domande di naturalizzazione possono essere presentate alle competenti autorità locali dopo il compimento del sedicesimo anno di età.

In base al § 38, comma 2, della Legge sulla cittadinanza è richiesta una tassa di naturalizzazione di 255 euro. Per i figli minori che non sono economicamente indipendenti l'importo è di 51 euro.

Al formulario, predisposto dalle autorità locali per la richiesta di naturalizzazione, devono essere allegati i seguenti documenti: una foto formato tessera, il passaporto con il permesso di soggiorno, il certificato di nascita, il certificato di matrimonio, se è richiesta anche la naturalizzazione del coniuge, un documento che indichi lo stipendio percepito (Verdienstbescheinigung) ed eventualmente un certificato del datore di lavoro, un certificato dell'istituto (legalmente riconosciuto) che attesti le competenze linguistiche.

La cittadinanza doppia o plurima

Nella normativa vigente resta valido il principio generale per cui non è ammessa la cittadinanza doppia o plurima (Vermeidung von Doppelte Staatsangehörigkeit - Mehrstaatigkeit). Coloro che intendono acquisire la cittadinanza tedesca attraverso la naturalizzazione devono, quindi, rinunciare a quella d'origine.

Esistono, tuttavia, delle circostanze, previste al § 12 della Legge sulla cittadinanza, che rappresentano un'eccezione alla regola generale, giustificate dal fatto che talora non è possibile rinunciare alla propria nazionalità, perché l'ordinamento del paese di origine non lo prevede o perché lo Stato straniero regolarmente respinge le richieste^[5]. La legge prevede alcune eccezioni anche nel caso di persone molto anziane, di profughi e rifugiati politici e qualora la rinuncia comporti il versamento di tasse particolarmente elevate o determini l'insorgenza di gravi pregiudizi di natura economica o patrimoniale. Inoltre, a partire dal 28 agosto 2007, la rinuncia alla nazionalità d'origine non è necessaria se il richiedente è un cittadino di uno Stato membro dell'Unione europea, della Svizzera o di un altro Stato con il quale la Repubblica federale tedesca ha stipulato una convenzione di diritto internazionale (§ 12, commi 2 e 3). Sempre sulla base delle misure introdotte nel 2007, anche i cittadini tedeschi non perdono automaticamente la loro cittadinanza qualora acquisiscano quella di uno Stato membro dell'Unione europea, della Svizzera o di un altro

Stato con il quale la Repubblica federale tedesca ha stipulato una convenzione di diritto internazionale (§ 25, comma 1).

I cittadini tedeschi che desiderino ottenere la cittadinanza di un altro Stato senza perdere quella del paese di origine possono richiedere la cosiddetta autorizzazione al mantenimento della cittadinanza tedesca (Beibehaltungsgenehmigung) che può essere concessa a discrezione dalle competenti autorità nazionali dopo aver ponderato gli interessi pubblici e privati (§ 25, comma 2).

REGNO UNITO

Riferimenti normativi

La cittadinanza britannica è disciplinata dal British Nationality Act del 1981, in vigore dal 1° gennaio 1983; alcune modifiche sono state introdotte, tra gli altri, con il British Overseas Territories Act del 2002[6], il Nationality, Immigration and Asylum Act del 2002[7], l'Immigration, Asylum and Nationality Act del 2006[8].

La disciplina della cittadinanza

L'istituto della cittadinanza si articola in forme diverse in base a tre distinti ambiti territoriali: cosicché è contemplata non solamente la cittadinanza britannica propriamente detta - relativa al Regno Unito, alle Isole del Canale e all'Isola di Man -, ma anche la British Dependent Territories Citizenship e la British Overseas Citizenship. Nel secondo e nel terzo caso, norme speciali sono dettate per la cittadinanza.

Nascita nel Regno Unito

Si è cittadini britannici se al momento della nascita uno dei genitori è cittadino britannico o è autorizzato dall'autorità competente a soggiornare nel Regno Unito in modo permanente (cosiddetto settlement, "stabilimento"), ossia non deve più soggiacere a limiti temporali del soggiorno dettati dalla legislazione in materia di immigrazione (Immigration Act del 1971 e successive modifiche), né trovarsi a maggior ragione in situazione irregolare.

Quando al momento della nascita del figlio nessuno dei due genitori è cittadino britannico o è stabilito nel Regno Unito, vi sono diversi modi per acquisire la cittadinanza.

In primo luogo, se successivamente uno dei genitori diventa cittadino britannico o riceve il diritto di stabilirsi (to settle), il figlio può fare domanda di “naturalizzazione”, ma prima del compimento della maggiore età.

Il figlio può inoltre fare domanda se ha vissuto nel Regno Unito per i primi 10 anni dopo la nascita, non essendosi assentato per più di 90 giorni in ciascuno di questi anni. In tal caso non sono previsti limiti di tempo.

Naturalizzazione dei cittadini stranieri

Se una persona è sposata con un cittadino britannico, l'acquisizione della cittadinanza è relativamente semplice. Il richiedente deve infatti dimostrare che: ha la maggiore età; è stabilito (settled) nel Regno Unito (non importa da quando); vi ha vissuto legalmente per almeno 3 anni e non è stato assente dal paese per più di 270 giorni in questo periodo e per non più di 90 giorni nell'anno precedente la domanda; soddisfa a condizioni di salute mentale (sound mind and good character) e di onorabilità (in sostanza è in regola sotto il profilo fiscale e penale).

Se una persona non è sposata ad un cittadino britannico, la legge impone invece una serie di requisiti più onerosi. Il richiedente deve infatti dimostrare che: ha la maggiore età; è stabilito (settled) nel Regno Unito da almeno 1 anno; vi ha vissuto legalmente per almeno 5 anni e non è stato assente dal paese per più di 450 giorni in questo periodo e per non più di 90 giorni nell'anno precedente la domanda; soddisfa alle succitate condizioni di salute mentale e di onorabilità; ha intenzione di continuare a vivere nel Regno Unito.

Dal 1° novembre 2005, tutti i richiedenti devono inoltre: superare un test che dimostri una conoscenza sufficiente della lingua inglese, gallese o gaelica scozzese (livello Entry 3 dell'English for Speakers of Other Languages - ESOL); superare un altro test che dimostri “la conoscenza sufficiente della vita nel Regno Unito”, nella forma di domande sulle istituzioni sociali e civili del paese per una durata complessiva di 45 minuti^[9]; partecipare a livello locale ad una “cerimonia della cittadinanza”, in occasione della concessione della stessa, che prevede la prestazione di un giuramento solenne (Oath and Pledge to the United Kingdom).

I due test possono essere sostenuti dopo aver seguito appositi corsi offerti da organismi accreditati e sono a pagamento per il candidato.

Il Ministero degli Interni (Home Office) può respingere la domanda di cittadinanza in teoria senza l'obbligo di fornire una motivazione, ma la giurisprudenza delle corti ha imposto che esso debba comunicare in linea di principio i motivi del rigetto e che il richiedente possa presentare sue osservazioni prima della decisione definitiva. Non esiste un diritto generale di ricorso (right of appeal). È invece possibile presentare una nuova domanda.

Ai sensi della legislazione antiterrorismo, lo stesso Ministero può decidere di privare una persona della cittadinanza britannica se questa ha compiuto atti seriamente pregiudizievoli per gli interessi vitali del Regno Unito. Tale potere si aggiunge a quello di revoca della cittadinanza, già previsto in caso di frode, false dichiarazioni o occultamento di fatti. In entrambi i casi è ammesso il diritto di ricorso.

Infine, è consentito il possesso, da parte di colui che ottenga la cittadinanza britannica, di altre nazionalità, purché ciò sia consentito dallo Stato di origine.

Riferimenti normativi

Costituzione spagnola del 27 dicembre 1978, art. 11

Codice civile, artt. 17-28 (modificati con la legge 36/2002, dell'8 ottobre 2002)

Legge 32/2002, del 5 luglio 2002, di modifica della legge 17/1999, sull'accesso degli stranieri alla condizione di militare di professione

La cittadinanza d'origine

La Costituzione spagnola del 1978, all'articolo 11, rinvia ad una legge attuativa per quanto concerne le modalità di acquisizione, conservazione e perdita della cittadinanza (nacionalidad), limitandosi a porre il principio generale del divieto della privazione della cittadinanza nei confronti degli spagnoli d'origine. Un'ulteriore disposizione riguarda la possibilità di sottoscrivere trattati internazionali sulla “doppia cittadinanza” (doble nacionalidad) con i paesi ispano-americani o con altri paesi che abbiano mantenuto particolari legami con la Spagna, sulla base del principio di reciprocità.

La normativa specifica sul diritto di cittadinanza è contenuta nel codice civile, all'interno del Libro primo “Delle persone”, nel Titolo I “Degli spagnoli e degli stranieri” (artt. 17-28).

In particolare, sono spagnoli d'origine:

- i nati da padre o madre spagnoli;
- i nati in Spagna da genitori stranieri, se almeno uno di essi è nato in Spagna, ad eccezione dei figli di funzionari diplomatici o consolari accreditati in Spagna;
- i nati in Spagna da genitori stranieri, se entrambi non possiedono alcuna cittadinanza o la legislazione dei loro paesi d'origine non assegna al figlio la cittadinanza;

- i nati in Spagna la cui filiazione non risulti accertata. In tal caso si considerano nati nel territorio nazionale i minori di età il cui primo luogo conosciuto di soggiorno sia la Spagna.

Nel caso in cui la filiazione o la nascita in Spagna siano accertati dopo il compimento del diciottesimo anno di età, l'interessato non acquista automaticamente la cittadinanza spagnola d'origine, ma ha due anni di tempo per optare in tal senso.

Nella circostanza opposta, cioè laddove si scopra successivamente la mancanza di uno dei requisiti fondamentali per il possesso della cittadinanza spagnola d'origine, se l'interessato, fatta salva la sua buona fede, è stato considerato cittadino spagnolo per almeno dieci anni ininterrotti, con iscrizione regolare presso i registri dello stato civile, mantiene la cittadinanza.

È infine cittadino d'origine lo straniero, minore di diciotto anni, che viene adottato da uno spagnolo.

La cittadinanza mediante opzione

In aggiunta ai casi di possesso della cittadinanza d'origine, è possibile, come già accennato (accertamento della nascita o filiazione in Spagna dopo il compimento del diciottesimo anno di età), optare per la cittadinanza spagnola; tale possibilità è prevista, infatti, anche per gli adottati nella maggiore età, purché esercitino tale opzione entro i due anni dall'adozione.

Il codice civile individua inoltre altre due categorie che possono esercitare il diritto d'opzione:

- le persone che siano, o siano state, soggette alla patria potestà di uno spagnolo;
- coloro il cui padre o madre, nato in Spagna, abbia avuto in passato la cittadinanza spagnola.[\[10\]](#)

La dichiarazione di opzione va fatta dall'interessato, se maggiorenne e con piena capacità giuridica; per i minorenni, purché maggiori di quattordici anni, è richiesta l’assistenza di un rappresentante legale. Per i minori di quattordici anni, infine, è possibile soltanto la richiesta inoltrata da un rappresentante legale dell’optante, autorizzata dall’ufficiale dello stato civile del domicilio del richiedente, ascoltato il parere del Pubblico Ministero e nell’interesse del soggetto.

In caso di dichiarazione effettuata direttamente dall’interessato in possesso della maggiore età, è previsto, anche per chi è stato soggetto alla patria potestà di un cittadino, il termine di due anni per far valere l’opzione, mentre tale termine non si applica nel caso di chi ha avuto un genitore nato in Spagna e che era stato, in passato, cittadino spagnolo.

Trascorso il termine di due anni è comunque ancora possibile ottenere la cittadinanza, ma attraverso la “acquisizione” della stessa e previo il requisito della “residenza legale”.

L’acquisizione della cittadinanza

La cittadinanza spagnola può anche essere acquisita con due modalità: in primo luogo attraverso il rilascio di un “certificato di cittadinanza” (carta de naturaleza) mediante Real Decreto, emanato a discrezione dell’autorità competente, ma soltanto nei casi in cui il richiedente si trovi in “circostanze eccezionali”; in secondo luogo, nella maniera più frequente, l’ottenimento della cittadinanza avviene con il requisito della “residenza in Spagna”, su concessione del Ministro della Giustizia.

In entrambi i casi la domanda va inoltrata con gli stessi criteri già elencati per l’opzione a favore della cittadinanza spagnola, a seconda dell’età del richiedente.

Il requisito fondamentale, per la richiesta in base alla residenza, è appunto quello della “residenza legale e continuata” in Spagna per un periodo di 10 anni, come regola generale.

Per tale criterio di base sono tuttavia previste alcune eccezioni favorevoli:

- per coloro che sono stati riconosciuti come rifugiati politici: 5 anni di residenza;
- per i cittadini d’origine dei paesi ispano-americani, per quelli di Andorra, Filippine, Guinea Equatoriale, Portogallo e per i sefarditi: 2 anni di residenza;

- per coloro che sono nati in Spagna: 1 anno di residenza;
- per coloro che sono sposati con un cittadino spagnolo da almeno un anno e non sono separati legalmente o di fatto: 1 anno di residenza;
- per coloro che sono, o sono stati, soggetti legalmente alla tutela, alla custodia o all'affidamento di un cittadino o di un ente spagnolo per due anni consecutivi: 1 anno di residenza;
- per i vedovi o le vedove di uno spagnolo o di una spagnola, se alla morte del coniuge non vi era separazione legale o di fatto: 1 anno di residenza;
- per i nati fuori dalla Spagna, ma con un genitore o un nonno che ha avuto, in passato, la cittadinanza spagnola: 1 anno di residenza;
- per coloro che non hanno fatto valere, in passato, il diritto di opzione per la cittadinanza spagnola: 1 anno di residenza.

La domanda, rivolta al Ministro della Giustizia, va presentata presso l'ufficio dello stato civile dove si trova il domicilio del richiedente, corredata dai diversi certificati richiesti per le differenti fattispecie sopra elencate e, in ogni caso, da un certificato della Direzione generale di Polizia che attesti la durata della residenza legale e continuata in Spagna.

L'interessato deve inoltre attestare “buona condotta civica e sufficiente grado di integrazione nella società spagnola”.

A tale proposito sono richiesti, oltre ai certificati concernenti i precedenti penali, in Spagna e nel paese di provenienza, anche un certificato che attesti l'iscrizione ai tutti i ruoli anagrafici e tributari (certificado de empadronamiento); lo straniero dovrà inoltre dimostrare quali sono i suoi mezzi di sostentamento in Spagna.

Il Ministro della Giustizia può respingere la richiesta di cittadinanza con decisione motivata, per ragioni di ordine pubblico o d'interesse nazionale. Tale atto è impugnabile in via amministrativa.

La concessione della cittadinanza, sia mediante opzione che a seguito di rilascio del “certificato di cittadinanza” o per acquisizione con residenza in Spagna, decade automaticamente dopo 180 giorni se la persona interessata, nel caso sia maggiore di 14 anni ed in pieno possesso della capacità giuridica ad agire, non compie i seguenti atti:

- dichiara o promette fedeltà al Re ed obbedienza alla Costituzione e alle leggi;
- dichiara di rinunciare alla sua cittadinanza di origine, ad eccezione di coloro che provengono dai paesi ispano-americani e da Andorra, Filippine, Guinea Equatoriale e Portogallo, in base alla possibilità della “doppia cittadinanza”, prevista all’articolo 11 della Costituzione;
- registra l’acquisizione della cittadinanza spagnola presso l’ufficio dello stato civile.

Infine, disposizioni speciali sull’acquisizione della cittadinanza spagnola, non inserite nel codice civile, sono state recentemente introdotte con la settima disposizione aggiuntiva della Ley 52/2007, de 26 de diciembre, por la que se reconocen y amplían derechos y se establecen medidas en favor de quienes padecieron persecución o violencia durante la guerra civil y la dictadura.[\[11\]](#)

Le disposizioni, di natura temporanea, consentono infatti la richiesta di acquisizione della cittadinanza spagnola, entro un periodo di due anni a partire dall’entrata in vigore della legge, prorogabile per un ulteriore periodo massimo di un anno, con decisione del Consiglio dei Ministri, per le seguenti due categorie:

- persone con padre o madre che siano stati spagnoli di origine;
- nipoti di coloro che persero o dovettero rinunciare alla cittadinanza spagnola come conseguenza dell’esilio.

La perdita e il riacquisto della cittadinanza

In base al codice civile perdono la cittadinanza spagnola coloro che, divenuti indipendenti dalla loro famiglia di origine (emancipados), decidano di risiedere abitualmente all’estero, di acquisire volontariamente un’altra cittadinanza o di utilizzare esclusivamente una cittadinanza straniera, che avevano prima della loro emancipazione.

La perdita della cittadinanza spagnola avviene dopo tre anni, calcolati a partire dall’acquisizione della nuova cittadinanza o dall’emancipazione. Gli interessati potranno tuttavia evitare di perdere la cittadinanza spagnola se, entro il tempo indicato, dichiarano di volerla conservare innanzi all'ufficiale dello stato civile.[\[12\]](#)

L'acquisizione della cittadinanza di uno dei paesi ispano-americani o di Andorra, Filippine, Guinea Equatoriale e Portogallo non comporta automaticamente la perdita della cittadinanza spagnola, vista la possibilità della doppia cittadinanza.

In ogni caso perdono la cittadinanza spagnola coloro che rinunciano espressamente ad essa, ne mantengono un'altra e risiedono abitualmente all'estero.

Coloro che sono nati e risiedono all'estero, ma sono cittadini spagnoli in quanto figli di padre o madre spagnola, seppure nati all'estero a loro volta, laddove le leggi del paese gli attribuiscono la cittadinanza dello stesso, perderanno in ogni caso la cittadinanza spagnola, a meno che non dichiarino espressamente di volerla conservare innanzi all'ufficiale dello stato civile, entro tre anni a partire dalla maggiore età o dall'emancipazione.[\[13\]](#)

Per gli spagnoli che non sono cittadini d'origine, ma per acquisizione, la perdita della cittadinanza avviene nei seguenti casi:

- quando, per un periodo di tre anni, utilizzano esclusivamente la cittadinanza alla quale avevano dichiarato di rinunciare per acquisire la spagnola;
- quando entrano volontariamente al servizio di Forze Armate straniere o rivestono cariche politiche in uno Stato straniero, contro il divieto espresso dal Governo spagnolo.

La sentenza definitiva che afferma che l'interessato è incorso nei reati di falsità, occultazione o frode, con riferimento all'acquisizione della cittadinanza spagnola, produce la nullità dell'atto stesso di acquisizione, anche se non deriveranno da ciò effetti pregiudiziali per le terze persone eventualmente coinvolte, purché sia accertata la loro buona fede. L'azione penale di annullamento può essere avviata sia d'ufficio, dal Pubblico Ministero, sia a seguito di denuncia personale, entro un periodo massimo di quindici anni.

Coloro che abbiano perso la cittadinanza spagnola potranno comunque recuperarla, se in possesso dei seguenti requisiti e con la procedura indicata:

- avere la residenza legale in Spagna. Tale requisito non è richiesto agli emigranti o ai loro figli. Negli altri casi è possibile, in circostanze eccezionali, ottenere la deroga rilasciata dal Ministro della Giustizia;
- dichiarare, innanzi all'ufficiale dello stato civile, di voler recuperare la cittadinanza spagnola;
- iscrivere il recupero della cittadinanza nel registro dello stato civile.

Per i casi sopra menzionati di annullamento dell'atto di acquisizione della cittadinanza spagnola, per falsità, occultazione o frode, al fine di ottenere il recupero o l'acquisizione della cittadinanza è richiesta anche un'apposita abilitazione, rilasciata discrezionalmente dal Governo spagnolo.

Article 17-1

Les lois nouvelles relatives à l'attribution de la nationalité d'origine s'appliquent aux personnes encore mineures à la date de leur entrée en vigueur, sans préjudicier aux droits acquis par des tiers et sans que la validité des actes passés antérieurement puisse être contestée pour cause de nationalité.

Les dispositions de l'alinéa précédent s'appliquent à titre interprétatif, aux lois sur la nationalité d'origine qui ont été mises en vigueur après la promulgation du titre Ier du présent code.

Article 17-2

L'acquisition et la perte de la nationalité française sont régies par la loi en vigueur au temps de l'acte ou du fait auquel la loi attache ces effets.

Les dispositions de l'alinéa qui précède règlent, à titre interprétatif, l'application dans le temps des lois sur la nationalité qui ont été en vigueur avant le 19 octobre 1945.

Article 17-3

(Modifié par Loi n°2007-1631 du 20 novembre 2007 - art. 39 JORF 21 novembre 2007)

Les demandes en vue d'acquérir, de perdre la nationalité française ou d'être réintégré dans cette nationalité, ainsi que les déclarations de nationalité, peuvent, dans les conditions prévues par la loi, être faites, sans autorisation, dès l'âge de seize ans.

Le mineur âgé de moins de seize ans doit être représenté par celui ou ceux qui exercent à son égard l'autorité parentale.

Doit être pareillement représenté tout mineur dont l'altération des facultés mentales ou corporelles empêche l'expression de la volonté. L'empêchement est constaté par le juge des tutelles d'office, à la requête d'un membre de la famille du mineur ou du ministère public, au vu d'un certificat délivré par un médecin spécialiste choisi sur une liste établie par le procureur de la République.

Lorsque le mineur mentionné à l'alinéa précédent est placé sous tutelle, sa représentation est assurée par le tuteur autorisé à cet effet par le conseil de famille.

Au sens du présent titre, l'expression "en France" s'entend du territoire métropolitain, des départements et des collectivités d'outre-mer ainsi que de la Nouvelle-Calédonie et des Terres australes et antarctiques françaises.

Article 17-5

Dans le présent titre, majorité et minorité s'entendent au sens de la loi française.

Article 17-6

Il est tenu compte pour la détermination, à toute époque, du territoire français, des modifications résultant des actes de l'autorité publique française pris en application de la constitution et des lois, ainsi que des traités internationaux survenus antérieurement.

Les effets sur la nationalité française de l'accession à l'indépendance d'anciens départements ou territoires d'outre-mer de la République sont déterminés au chapitre VII du présent titre.

Article 17-10

Les dispositions de l'article 17-8 s'appliquent, à titre interprétatif, aux changements de nationalité consécutifs aux annexions et cessions de territoires résultant de traités antérieurs au 19 octobre 1945.

Toutefois, les personnes étrangères qui étaient domiciliées dans les territoires rétrocédés par la France, conformément au traité de Paris du 30 mai 1814 et qui, à la suite de ce traité, ont transféré en France leur domicile, n'ont pu acquérir, de ce chef, la nationalité française que si elles se sont conformées aux dispositions de la loi du 14 octobre 1814. Les Français qui étaient nés hors des territoires rétrocédés et qui ont conservé leur domicile sur ces territoires n'ont pas perdu la nationalité française, par application du traité susvisé.

Article 17-11

Sans qu'il soit porté atteinte à l'interprétation donnée aux accords antérieurs, un changement de nationalité ne peut, en aucun cas, résulter d'une convention internationale si celle-ci ne le prévoit expressément.

Article 17-12

Lorsqu'un changement de nationalité est subordonné, dans les termes d'une convention internationale, à l'accomplissement d'un acte d'option, cet acte est déterminé dans sa forme par la loi de celui des pays contractants dans lequel il est institué.

Article 19-1

(Loi n° 98-170 du 16 mars 1998 art. 13 Journal Officiel du 17 mars 1998 en vigueur le 1er septembre 1998)

(Loi du 8 mars 1803 promulguée le 18 mars 1803)

(Loi du 10 août 1927 art. 13)

L'enfant qui est français en vertu des dispositions du présent chapitre est réputé avoir été français dès sa naissance, même si l'existence des conditions requises par la loi pour l'attribution de la nationalité française n'est établie que postérieurement.

La nationalité de l'enfant qui a fait l'objet d'une adoption plénière est déterminée selon les distinctions établies aux articles 18 et 18-1, 19-1, 19-3 et 19-4 ci-dessus.

Toutefois, l'établissement de la qualité de Français postérieurement à la naissance ne porte pas atteinte à la validité des actes antérieurement passés par l'intéressé ni aux droits antérieurement acquis à des tiers sur le fondement de la nationalité apparente de l'enfant.

Article 20-1

La filiation de l'enfant n'a d'effet sur la nationalité de celui-ci que si elle est établie durant sa minorité.

Article 20-2

Le Français qui possède la faculté de répudier la nationalité française dans les cas visés au présent titre peut exercer cette faculté par déclaration souscrite conformément aux articles 26 et suivants.

Il peut renoncer à cette faculté à partir de l'âge de seize ans dans les mêmes conditions.

Article 20-3

Dans les cas visés à l'article précédent, nul ne peut répudier la nationalité française s'il ne prouve qu'il a par filiation la nationalité d'un pays étranger.

Ces enfants ont toutefois la faculté d'acquérir volontairement la qualité de Français conformément aux dispositions de l'article 21-11 ci-après.

Chapitre III: De l'acquisition de la nationalité française

Section 1: Des modes d'acquisition de la nationalité française

Paragraphe 1: Acquisition de la nationalité française à raison de la filiation

Article 21

(Loi du 8 mars 1803 promulguée le 18 mars 1803)

(Loi du 10 août 1927 art. 13)

L'adoption simple n'exerce de plein droit aucun effet sur la nationalité de l'adopté.

Paragraphe 2: Acquisition de la nationalité française à raison du mariage

Article 21-1

Le mariage n'exerce de plein droit aucun effet sur la nationalité.

Article 21-2

(Loi n° 98-170 du 16 mars 1998 art. 1 Journal Officiel du 17 mars 1998 en vigueur le 1er septembre 1998)

(Loi n° 2003-1119 du 26 novembre 2003 art. 65 Journal Officiel du 27 novembre 2003)

L'étranger ou apatride qui contracte mariage avec un conjoint de nationalité française peut, après un délai de quatre ans à compter du mariage, acquérir la nationalité française par déclaration à condition qu'à la date de cette déclaration la communauté de vie tant affective que matérielle n'ait pas cessé entre les époux depuis le mariage et que le conjoint français ait conservé sa nationalité.

Le délai de communauté de vie est porté à cinq ans lorsque l'étranger, au moment de la déclaration, soit ne justifie pas avoir résidé de manière ininterrompue et régulière pendant au moins trois ans en France à compter du mariage, soit n'est pas en mesure d'apporter la preuve que son conjoint français a été inscrit pendant la durée de leur communauté de vie à l'étranger au registre des Français établis hors de France. En outre, le mariage célébré à l'étranger doit avoir fait l'objet d'une transcription préalable sur les registres de l'état civil français.

Le conjoint étranger doit en outre justifier d'une connaissance suffisante, selon sa condition, de la langue française.

La déclaration est faite dans les conditions prévues aux articles 26 et suivants. Par dérogation aux dispositions de l'article 26-1, elle est enregistrée par le ministre chargé des naturalisations.

Article 21-3

Sous réserve des dispositions prévues aux articles 21-4 et 26-3, l'intéressé acquiert la nationalité française à la date à laquelle la déclaration a été souscrite.

Article 21-4

(Loi n° 2003-1119 du 26 novembre 2003 art. 66 Journal Officiel du 27 novembre 2003)

Le Gouvernement peut s'opposer par décret en Conseil d'Etat, pour indignité ou défaut d'assimilation, autre que linguistique, à l'acquisition de la nationalité française par le conjoint étranger dans un délai de deux ans à compter de la date du récépissé prévu au deuxième alinéa de l'article 26 ou, si l'enregistrement a été refusé, à compter du jour où la décision judiciaire admettant la régularité de la déclaration est passée en force de chose jugée.

La situation effective de polygamie du conjoint étranger ou la condamnation prononcée à son encontre au titre de l'infraction définie à l'article 222-9 du code pénal, lorsque celle-ci a été commise sur un mineur de quinze ans, sont constitutives du défaut d'assimilation.

En cas d'opposition du Gouvernement, l'intéressé est réputé n'avoir jamais acquis la nationalité française.

Toutefois, la validité des actes passés entre la déclaration et le décret d'opposition ne pourra être contestée pour le motif que l'auteur n'a pu acquérir la nationalité française.

Article 21-5

Le mariage déclaré nul par une décision émanant d'une juridiction française ou d'une juridiction étrangère dont l'autorité est reconnue en France ne rend pas caduque la déclaration prévue à l'article 21-2 au profit du conjoint qui l'a contracté de bonne foi.

Article 21-6

L'annulation du mariage n'a point d'effet sur la nationalité des enfants qui en sont issus.

Paragraphe 3: Acquisition de la nationalité française à raison de la naissance et de la résidence en France

Article 21-7

(Loi n° 98-170 du 16 mars 1998 art. 2 Journal Officiel du 17 mars 1998 en vigueur le 1er septembre 1998)

Les tribunaux d'instance, les collectivités territoriales, les organismes et services publics, et notamment les établissements d'enseignement sont tenus d'informer le public, et en particulier les personnes auxquelles s'applique le premier alinéa, des dispositions en vigueur en matière de nationalité. Les conditions de cette information sont fixées par décret en Conseil d'Etat.

Article 21-8

(Loi n° 93-1417 du 30 décembre 1993 art. 11 I Journal Officiel du 1er janvier 1994 en vigueur le 1er mars 1994)

(Loi n° 98-170 du 16 mars 1998 art. 3 Journal Officiel du 17 mars 1998 en vigueur le 1er septembre 1998)

L'intéressé a la faculté de déclarer, dans les conditions prévues aux articles 26 et suivants et sous réserve qu'il prouve qu'il a la nationalité d'un Etat étranger, qu'il décline la qualité de Français dans les six mois qui précèdent sa majorité ou dans les douze mois qui la suivent.

Dans ce dernier cas, il est réputé n'avoir jamais été français.

Article 21-9

(Loi n° 98-170 du 16 mars 1998 art. 4 Journal Officiel du 17 mars 1998 en vigueur le 1er septembre 1998)

Toute personne qui remplit les conditions prévues à l'article 21-7 pour acquérir la qualité de Français perd la faculté de décliner celle-ci si elle contracte un engagement dans les armées françaises.

Tout mineur né en France de parents étrangers, qui est régulièrement incorporé en qualité d'engagé, acquiert la nationalité française à la date de son incorporation.

Article 21-10

Les dispositions des articles 21-7 à 21-9 ne sont pas applicables aux enfants nés en France des agents diplomatiques et des consuls de carrière de nationalité étrangère. Ces enfants ont toutefois la faculté d'acquérir volontairement la nationalité française conformément aux dispositions de l'article 21-11 ci-après.

Article 21-11

(Modifié par Loi n°2007-1631 du 20 novembre 2007 - art. 39 JORF 21 novembre 2007)

(Loi n° 98-170 du 16 mars 1998 art. 16 Journal Officiel du 17 mars 1998 en vigueur le 1er septembre 1998)

Mention sera portée, en marge de l'acte de naissance, des actes administratifs et des déclarations ayant pour effet l'acquisition, la perte de la nationalité française ou la réintégration dans cette nationalité.

Il sera fait de même mention de toute première délivrance de certificat de nationalité française et des décisions juridictionnelles ayant trait à cette nationalité.

Toutefois, la mention de la perte, de la déclinaison, de la déchéance, de l'opposition à l'acquisition de la nationalité française, du retrait du décret d'acquisition, de naturalisation ou de réintégration ou de la décision judiciaire ayant constaté l'extranéité est portée d'office sur tous les extraits des actes de naissance et sur le livret de famille lorsqu'une personne ayant antérieurement acquis cette nationalité, ou s'étant vu reconnaître judiciairement celle-ci, ou délivrer un certificat de nationalité française a demandé qu'il en soit fait mention sur lesdits documents.

Chapitre VI: Du contentieux de la nationalité

Section 1: De la compétence des tribunaux judiciaires et de la procédure devant ces tribunaux

Article 29

(Loi du 8 mars 1803 promulguée le 18 mars 1803)

(Loi du 31 mai 1854)

La juridiction civile de droit commun est seule compétente pour connaître des contestations sur la nationalité française ou étrangère des personnes physiques.

Les questions de nationalité sont préjudicielles devant toute autre juridiction de l'ordre administratif ou judiciaire à l'exception des juridictions répressives comportant un jury criminel.

Article 29-1

Le siège et le ressort des tribunaux de grande instance compétents pour connaître des contestations sur la nationalité française ou étrangère des personnes physiques sont fixés par décret.

Article 29-2

La procédure suivie en matière de nationalité, et notamment la communication au ministère de la justice des assignations, conclusions et voies de recours, est déterminée par le code de procédure civile.

Article 29-3

Toute personne a le droit d'agir pour faire décider qu'elle a ou qu'elle n'a point la qualité de Français.

Le procureur de la République a le même droit à l'égard de toute personne. Il est défendeur nécessaire à toute action déclaratoire de nationalité. Il doit être mis en cause toutes les fois qu'une question de nationalité est posée à titre incident devant un tribunal habile à en connaître.

Article 29-4

Le procureur est tenu d'agir s'il en est requis par une administration publique ou par une tierce personne ayant soulevé l'exception de nationalité devant une juridiction qui a sursis à statuer en application de l'article 29. Le tiers requérant devra être mis en cause.

Article 29-5

Les jugements et arrêts rendus en matière de nationalité française par le juge de droit commun ont effet même à l'égard de ceux qui n'y ont été ni parties, ni représentés.

Tout intéressé est recevable cependant à les attaquer par la tierce opposition à la condition de mettre en cause le procureur de la République.

Section 2: De la preuve de la nationalité devant les tribunaux judiciaires

Article 30

(Loi du 8 mars 1803 promulguée le 18 mars 1803)

(Loi du 31 mai 1854)

La charge de la preuve, en matière de nationalité française, incombe à celui dont la nationalité est en cause.

Toutefois, cette charge incombe à celui qui conteste la qualité de Français à un individu titulaire d'un certificat de nationalité française délivré conformément aux articles 31 et suivants.

Article 30-1

(Loi n° 99-1141 du 29 décembre 1999 art. 3 Journal Officiel du 30 décembre 1999)

Lorsque la nationalité française est attribuée ou acquise autrement que par déclaration, décret d'acquisition ou de naturalisation, réintégration ou annexion de territoires, la preuve ne peut être faite qu'en établissant l'existence de toutes les conditions requises par la loi.

Article 30-2

Néanmoins, lorsque la nationalité française ne peut avoir sa source que dans la filiation, elle est tenue pour établie, sauf la preuve contraire si l'intéressé et celui de ses père et mère qui a été susceptible de la lui transmettre ont joui d'une façon constante de la possession d'état de Français.

La nationalité française des personnes nées à Mayotte, majeures au 1er janvier 1994, sera subsidiairement tenue pour établie si ces personnes ont joui de façon constante de la possession d'état de Français.

Pendant une période de trois ans à compter de la publication de la loi n° 2006-911 du 24 juillet 2006 relative à l'immigration et à l'intégration, pour l'application du deuxième alinéa du présent article, les personnes majeures au 1er janvier 1994 qui établissent qu'elles sont nées à Mayotte sont réputées avoir joui de façon constante de la possession d'état de Français si elles prouvent, en outre, qu'elles ont été inscrites sur une liste électorale à Mayotte au moins dix ans avant la publication de la loi n° 2006-911 du 24 juillet 2006 précitée et qu'elles font la preuve d'une résidence habituelle à Mayotte.

Article 30-3

Lorsqu'un individu réside ou a résidé habituellement à l'étranger, où les ascendants dont il tient par filiation la nationalité sont demeurés fixés pendant plus d'un demi-siècle, cet individu ne sera pas admis à faire la preuve qu'il a, par filiation, la nationalité française si lui-même et celui de ses père et mère qui a été susceptible de la lui transmettre n'ont pas eu la possession d'état de Français.

Le tribunal devra dans ce cas constater la perte de la nationalité française, dans les termes de l'article 23-6.

Article 30-4

En dehors des cas de perte ou de déchéance de la nationalité française, la preuve de l'extranéité d'un individu peut seulement être établie en démontrant que l'intéressé ne remplit aucune des conditions exigées par la loi pour avoir la qualité de Français.

Section 3: Des certificats de nationalité française

Article 31

(Loi du 31 mai 1854)

(Loi n° 93-933 du 22 juillet 1993 art. 50 Journal Officiel du 23 juillet 1993)

Article 31-1

Le siège et le ressort des tribunaux d'instance compétents pour délivrer les certificats de nationalité sont fixés par décret.

Article 31-2

(Loi n° 93-933 du 22 juillet 1993 art. 50 Journal Officiel du 23 juillet 1993)

(Loi n° 95-125 du 8 février 1995 art. 16 Journal Officiel du 9 février 1995 en vigueur le 9 mai 1995)

Le certificat de nationalité indique, en se référant aux chapitres II, III, IV et VII du présent titre, la disposition légale en vertu de laquelle l'intéressé a la qualité de Français, ainsi que les documents qui ont permis de l'établir. Il fait foi jusqu'à preuve du contraire.

Pour l'établissement d'un certificat de nationalité, le greffier en chef du tribunal d'instance pourra présumer, à défaut d'autres éléments, que les actes d'état civil dressés à l'étranger et qui sont produits devant lui emportent les effets que la loi française y aurait attachés.

Article 31-3

(Loi n° 93-933 du 22 juillet 1993 art. 50 Journal Officiel du 23 juillet 1993)

(Loi n° 95-125 du 8 février 1995 art. 17 Journal Officiel du 9 février 1995 en vigueur le 9 mai 1995)

Lorsque le greffier en chef du tribunal d'instance refuse de délivrer un certificat de nationalité, l'intéressé peut saisir le ministre de la justice, qui décide s'il y a lieu de procéder à cette délivrance.

Section 2

(Repealed)

Section 3

[Acquisition of citizenship]

(1) Citizenship is acquired

1. by birth (Section 4),

In particular, any person who has been issued a certificate of nationality, a passport or a national identity card shall be treated as a German national. Acquisition of citizenship shall apply as of the date when the person was deemed to have acquired German citizenship by treating him or her as a German national. The acquisition of German citizenship shall extend to those descendants who derive their status as Germans from the beneficiary pursuant to sentence 1.

Section 4[\[15\]](#)

[Acquisition by birth]

(1) A child shall acquire German citizenship by birth if one parent possesses German citizenship. Where at the time of the birth only the father is a German national, and where for proof of descent under German law recognition or determination of paternity is necessary, acquisition shall be dependent on recognition or determination of paternity with legal effect under German law; the declaration of recognition must be submitted or the procedure for determination commenced before the child reaches the age of 23.

(2) A child which is found on German territory (foundling) shall be deemed to be the child of a German until otherwise proven.

(3) A child of foreign parents shall acquire German citizenship by birth in Germany if one parent

1. has been legally ordinarily resident in Germany for eight years and

2. has been granted a permanent right of residence or as a national of Switzerland or as a family member of a national of Switzerland possesses a residence permit on the basis of the Agreement of 21 June 1999 between the European Community and its Member States on the one hand and the Swiss Confederation on the other hand on the free movement of persons (Federal Law Gazette 2001 II p. 810).

The acquisition of German citizenship shall be recorded by the registrar responsible for certifying the child's birth. The Federal Ministry of the Interior shall, with the consent of the Bundesrat, be authorised to issue regulations concerning the procedure for recording the acquisition of citizenship pursuant to sentence 1 by way of ordinance.

(4) German citizenship shall not be acquired pursuant to sub-section 1 in case of birth abroad if the German parent was born abroad after 31 December 1999 and is ordinarily resident abroad, unless the child would otherwise become stateless. The legal consequence pursuant to sentence 1 shall not ensue if the German parent notifies the competent diplomatic mission abroad of the birth within one year. Where both parents are German nationals, the legal consequences pursuant to sentence 1 shall ensue only if they both fulfil the conditions stipulated therein.

Section 5

[Right of declaration for children born before 1 July 1993]

By declaring a wish to become a German national, a child born before 1 July 1993 of a German father and a foreign mother shall acquire German citizenship if

3. has found a dwelling of his or her own or accommodation and
4. is able to support himself or herself and his or her dependents.

(2) The requirements stipulated in sub-section 1, sentence 1, nos. 2 and 4 may be waived on grounds of public interest or in order to avoid special hardship.

Section 9

[Naturalisation of spouses or life partners of Germans]

(1) Spouses or life partners of Germans should be naturalised in keeping with the requirements set out in Section 8, if

1. they lose or give up their previous citizenship or a ground exists for accepting multiple nationality pursuant to Section 12 and

2. it is ensured that they will conform to the German way of life, unless they do not have sufficient command of the German language (Section 10(1), sentence 1, no. 6 and sub-section 4) and do not fulfil any condition that would justify an exception under Section 10, sub-section 6.

(2) The provision pursuant to sub-section 1 shall also apply if naturalisation is applied for within one year of the German spouse's death or of a ruling dissolving the marriage becoming final and the applicant is entitled to custody of a child issuing from the marriage who already possesses German citizenship.

(3) (repealed)

Section 10[16]

[Entitlement to naturalisation;

derivative naturalisation of spouses and minor children]

(1) A foreigner who has been legally ordinarily resident in Germany for eight years and possesses legal capacity pursuant to Section 80 of the Residence Act or has a legal representative shall be naturalised upon application if he or she 1. confirms his or her commitment to the free democratic constitutional system enshrined in the Basic Law of the Federal Republic of Germany and declares that he or she does not pursue or support and has never pursued or supported any activities

a) aimed at subverting the free democratic constitutional system, the existence or security of the Federation or a Land or

b) aimed at illegally impeding the constitutional bodies of the Federation or a Land or the members of said bodies in discharging their duties or

c) any activities which jeopardise foreign interests of the Federal Republic of Germany through the use of violence or preparatory actions for the use of violence, or credibly asserts that he or she has distanced himself or herself from the former pursuit or support of such activities,

2. has been granted a permanent right of residence or as a national of Switzerland or as a family member of a national of Switzerland possesses a residence permit on the basis of the Agreement of 21 June 1999 between the European Community and its Member States on the one hand and the Swiss Confederation on the other hand on the free movement of persons or possesses a residence permit for purposes other than those specified in Sections 16, 17, 20, 22, 23(1), 23a, 24 and Section 25 sub-sections 3 to 5 of the Residence Act,

3. is able to ensure his or her own subsistence and the subsistence of his or her dependents without recourse to benefits in accordance with Book Two or Book Twelve of the Social Code or recourse to such benefits is due to conditions beyond his or her control,

4. gives up or loses his or her previous citizenship,

5. has not been sentenced for an unlawful act and is not subject to any court order imposing a measure of reform and prevention,

6. possesses an adequate knowledge of German and

7. possesses knowledge of the legal system, the society and living conditions in the Federal Republic of Germany. The conditions under sentence 1 numbers 1 and 7 do not apply to foreigners who do not have legal capacity pursuant to Section 80 (1) of the Residence Act.

(2) The foreigner's spouse and minor children may be naturalised together with the foreigner in accordance with sub-section (1), irrespective of whether they have been lawfully resident in Germany for eight years.

(3) Upon a foreigner confirming successful attendance of an integration course by presenting a certificate issued by the Federal Office for Migration and Refugees, the qualifying period stipulated in sub-section 1 shall be reduced to seven years. This qualifying period may be reduced to six years if the foreigner has made outstanding efforts at integration exceeding the requirements under sub-section 1, sentence 1, no. 6, especially if he or she can demonstrate his or her command of the German language.

(4) The conditions specified in sub-section 1, sentence 1, no. 6 are fulfilled if the foreigner passes the oral and written language examinations leading to the Zertifikat Deutsch (equivalent of level B 1 in the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages). Where a minor child is under 16 years of age at the time of naturalisation the conditions of sub-section 1, sentence 1, no. 6 shall be fulfilled if the child demonstrates age-appropriate language skills.

(5) As a rule, the conditions specified in sub-section 1, sentence 1, no. 7 shall be fulfilled if the foreigner has passed the naturalisation test. To prepare for the test, foreigners may participate in voluntary integration courses.

(6) The requirements of sub-section 1, sentence 1, nos. 6 and 7 shall be waived if the foreigner is unable to fulfil them on account of a physical, mental or psychological illness or disability or on grounds related to age.

(7) The Federal Ministry of the Interior shall be authorised, without the need for approval by the Bundesrat, to issue ordinances defining the test and certification requirements as well as the basic structure and contents of the naturalisation courses under sub-section 5, based on the contents of the orientation course under Section 43, sub-section 3, sentence 1 of the Residence Act.

Section 11

[Grounds for exclusion]

Naturalisation shall not be allowed

1. there are concrete, justifiable grounds to assume that the foreigner is pursuing or supporting or has pursued or supported activities aimed at subverting the free democratic constitutional system, the existence or security of the Federation or a Land or at illegally impeding the constitutional bodies of the Federation or a Land or the members of said bodies in discharging their duties or any activities which jeopardise foreign interests of the Federal Republic of Germany through the use of violence or preparatory actions for the use of violence, unless he or she credibly asserts that he or she has distanced himself or herself from the former pursuit or support of such activities, or

2. a ground for expulsion applies pursuant to Section 54, nos. 5 and 5a of the Residence Act.

Sentence 1, no. 2 shall apply mutatis mutandis for foreigners within the meaning of Section 1 (2) of the Residence Act and also for nationals of Switzerland and their family members possessing a residence permit on the basis of the Agreement of 21 June 1999 between the European Community and its Member States on the one hand and the Swiss Confederation on the other hand on the free movement of persons.

Section 12

[Naturalisation accepting multiple nationality]

(1) The condition stipulated in Section 10 (1), sentence 1, no. 4 shall be waived if the foreigner is unable to give up his or her previous citizenship, or if doing so would entail particularly difficult conditions. This is to be assumed if

1. the law of the foreign state makes no provision for giving up its citizenship,

2. the foreign state regularly refuses to grant release from citizenship,

3. the foreign state has refused to grant release from citizenship for reasons for which the foreigner is not responsible, or attaches unreasonable conditions to release from citizenship or has failed to reach a decision within a reasonable time on the application for release from citizenship which has been submitted in due and complete form,

4. the subsequent multiple nationality represents the sole obstacle to the naturalisation of older persons, the process for release from citizenship entails unreasonable difficulties and failure to grant naturalisation would constitute special hardship,

5. in giving up his or her foreign citizenship the foreigner would incur substantial disadvantages beyond the loss of his or her civic rights, in particular such disadvantages of an economic or property-related nature, or

6. the foreigner holds a travel document in accordance with Article 28 of the Convention relating to the Status of Refugees of 28 July 1951 (Federal Law Gazette 1953 II, p. 559).

(2) The condition stipulated in Section 10 (1), sentence 1, no. 4 shall further be waived if the foreigner holds the citizenship of another member state of the European Union or Switzerland.

(3) Further exemptions from the condition stipulated in Section 10 (1), sentence 1, no. 4 may be granted pursuant to the provisions of agreements under international law.

Section 12a

[Decision in case of conviction for an offence]

(1) The following shall not be taken into consideration in the process of naturalisation:

1. The imposition of educational or disciplinary measures under the Juvenile Court Act,

2. sentencing to fines of up to 90 daily rates and

3. the imposition of suspended sentences of up to three months' imprisonment which are waived after expiry of the probationary period.

Where more than one term of imprisonment or more than one fine have been imposed pursuant to sentence 1, nos. 2 and 3, they shall be cumulated, unless doing so would result in a lesser punishment overall; where a fine and imprisonment are imposed simultaneously, one daily rate equals one day's imprisonment. If the punishment or the total of all punishments slightly exceeds the framework under sentences 1 and 2, it shall be decided on the merits of the individual case whether it can be disregarded. Where a measure of reform and prevention under Section 61, no. 5 or no. 6 of the Criminal Code has been imposed, it shall be decided on the merits of the individual case whether this measure of reform and prevention can be disregarded.

(2) Foreign convictions shall be considered if the offence concerned is to be regarded as liable to prosecution in Germany, the sentence has been passed in proceedings conducted in accordance with the rule of law and the sentence is commensurate.

Such a conviction cannot be considered if its removal from the records would be required in accordance with the Federal Central Criminal Register Act. Sub-section 1 shall apply mutatis mutandis.

(3) If a foreigner who has applied for naturalisation is under investigation on suspicion of having committed an offence, the decision on naturalisation shall be deferred until conclusion of the proceedings, and in the case of conviction until the judgement becomes unappealable. The same shall apply if the imposition of youth custody is suspended pursuant to Section 27 of the Juvenile Court Act.

(4) Convictions abroad and criminal investigations and proceedings which are pending abroad shall be stated in the application for naturalisation.

Section 12b

[Interruptions of residence]

(1) Ordinary residence in Germany shall not be considered interrupted by stays abroad of up to six months in duration. In case of longer stays abroad, ordinary residence in Germany shall be considered to continue if the foreigner re-enters the federal territory within the deadline stipulated by the foreigners authority. The same shall apply if the deadline is exceeded solely on account of the foreigner carrying out statutory military service in his or her country of origin and the foreigner re-enters the federal territory within three months of discharge from military or community service.

(2) If the foreigner has resided abroad for over six months for a reason of a nontemporary nature, the previous period of residence in Germany may be counted towards the duration of residence which is necessary for the purposes of naturalisation, up to a period of five years.

(3) Interruptions in the lawfulness of residence shall be disregarded if they arise as a result of the foreigner having failed to apply in good time for initial issuance or subsequent extension of the residence title.

Section 13

[Discretionary naturalisation of former Germans abroad]

A former German and his or her minor children who are ordinarily resident abroad may be naturalised on application if they meet the requirements of Section 8, subsection 1, nos. 1 and 2.

Section 14

[General discretionary naturalisation abroad]

A foreigner who is ordinarily resident abroad may be naturalised subject to the other conditions of Sections 8 and 9 if ties with Germany exist which justify naturalisation.

Section 15

(Repealed)

Section 16

[Certificate of naturalisation]

Naturalisation shall become effective upon delivery of the certificate of naturalisation issued by the competent administrative authority. Before the certificate is handed over to the foreigner he or she shall make the following solemn statement: "I solemnly declare that I will respect and observe the Basic Law and the laws of the Federal Republic of Germany, and that I will refrain from any activity which might cause it harm." Section 10, sub-section 1, sentence 2 shall apply mutatis mutandis.

Section 17

[Loss of citizenship]

Citizenship shall be lost

1. by release from citizenship (Sections 18 to 24),
2. by acquisition of a foreign citizenship (Section 25),
3. by renunciation (Section 26),
4. by adoption by a foreigner (Section 27),
5. by joining the armed forces or a comparable armed organisation of a foreign state (Section 28) or
6. by a declaration (Section 29).

Section 18

[Release from citizenship]

A German shall, on application, be released from citizenship if he or she has applied for a foreign citizenship and the competent body has furnished an assurance that such citizenship will be granted.

Section 19

[Release from citizenship of a person in parental custody or in the care of a guardian]

(1) Application for the release from citizenship of a person in parental custody or in the care of a guardian may be filed by the legal representative only and shall require approval from the German guardianship court. The public prosecutor's office is to be notified of the decision reached by the German guardianship court and may appeal against this decision; further appeals against the court of appeal's decision shall be permissible without any restrictions.

(2) The approval of the guardianship court shall not be required where the father or mother applies for release from citizenship for himself or herself and for a child at the same time by virtue of the right of custody and the applicant is entitled to custody for the child concerned.

Section 20

(Repealed)

Section 21

(Repealed)

Section 22

2. Persons liable for military service, until it is confirmed by the Federal Ministry of Defence or a body designated by the said Ministry that no reservations exist regarding release from citizenship.

Section 23

[Certificate of release]

Release from citizenship shall become effective upon delivery of the certificate of release from citizenship issued by the competent administrative authority.

Section 24

[Invalidity of release from citizenship]

The release from citizenship shall be deemed to be null and void if the released person fails to acquire the foreign citizenship of which he or she was assured within one year of issuance of the certificate of release.

Section 25

[Loss of citizenship on acquisition of a foreign citizenship following due application for the same; approval of retention of citizenship]

(1) A German shall lose his or her citizenship upon acquiring a foreign citizenship where such acquisition results from an application filed by the German concerned or his or her legal representative, whereas the represented person shall suffer such loss only if the qualifying conditions for application for release from citizenship apply as stipulated in Section 19. The loss under sentence 1 shall not take effect if a German acquires the citizenship of another member state of the European Union, Switzerland or of a state with whom the Federal Republic of Germany has signed a treaty under Section 12, sub-section 3.

(2) Citizenship shall not be lost by any person who, prior to acquiring foreign citizenship following their application for the same, received written approval from their competent authority for retention of their citizenship. Where an applicant is ordinarily resident abroad, the German diplomatic mission abroad shall be consulted in this connection. The public and private interests shall be weighed up in reaching the decision on an application pursuant to sentence 1. With regard to an applicant who is ordinarily resident abroad, special consideration shall be accorded to the question of whether he or she is able to furnish credible evidence of continuing ties with Germany.

Section 26

[Renunciation]

(1) A German may renounce his or her citizenship if he or she possesses several nationalities. Such a renunciation shall be declared in writing.

(2) The written renunciation shall require the approval of the authority which is competent pursuant to Section 23 for issuing the certificate of release. Such approval shall be withheld if release may not be granted pursuant to Section 22; this shall not apply, however, if the person renouncing citizenship 1. has been permanently resident abroad for at least ten years or

2. has performed military service in one of the states whose citizenship he holds as a person liable for military service within the meaning of Section 22, no. 2.

(3) The loss of citizenship shall take effect upon delivery of the certificate of renunciation issued by the approving authority.

(4) Section 19 shall apply mutatis mutandis for minors.

Section 27

[Loss of citizenship on adoption by a foreigner]

A German under the age of majority shall lose his or her citizenship as a result of adoption by a foreigner in accordance with German law, if he or she acquires the adopting person's citizenship by virtue of such adoption. The loss of citizenship shall extend to his or her descendants where the acquisition of citizenship by the adoptee pursuant to sentence 1 also extends to the descendants. The loss under sentence 1 or sentence 2 shall not take effect if the adoptee or his or her descendants maintain a legal relation to their German parent.

Section 28

[Loss of citizenship as a result of joining the armed forces or a comparable armed organisation of a foreign state]

A German who, without the consent of the Federal Ministry of Defence or a body designated by the said Ministry, voluntarily enlists with the armed forces or a comparable armed organisation of a foreign state whose citizenship he or she possesses, shall lose German citizenship. This shall not apply if he or she is entitled to enlist in the aforesaid manner by virtue of an inter-governmental agreement.

Section 29

[Declaration]

(1) After attaining the age of majority and after receiving due advice in accordance with sub-section 5, a German who, after 31 December 1999, has acquired citizenship pursuant to Section 4 (3) or via naturalisation pursuant to Section 40b and possesses a foreign citizenship is to declare whether he or she wishes to retain the German or foreign citizenship. The declaration shall be submitted in writing.

(2) If the person obliged to furnish a declaration pursuant to sub-section 1 declares a wish to retain the foreign citizenship, German citizenship shall be lost upon the declaration being received by the competent authority. Citizenship shall also be lost if no declaration has been made by the time the person concerned reaches the age of 23.

(3) If the person obliged to furnish a declaration pursuant to sub-section 1 declares a wish to retain German citizenship, he or she shall be obliged to furnish proof that he or she has given up or lost the foreign citizenship. German citizenship shall be lost if no such proof is furnished by the 23rd birthday of the person concerned, unless the German has previously applied for and received the written approval of the competent authority to retain German citizenship (retention approval). The application for retention approval, including as a precautionary measure, may only be filed up to the 21st birthday of the person concerned (preclusive period). The loss of German citizenship shall not take effect until rejection of the application becomes legally valid. The possibility of provisional legal redress pursuant to Section 123 of the Code of Administrative Procedure shall remain unaffected.

(4) The retention approval pursuant to sub-section 3 shall be granted where renunciation or loss of the foreign citizenship is not possible or cannot reasonably be expected or where acceptance of multiple nationality would be required in case of naturalisation in accordance with Section 12.

(5) The competent authority shall advise the person required to furnish a declaration pursuant to sub-section 1 of his or her obligations and the possible legal consequences as set out in sub-sections 2 to 4. The said advice shall be formally served. Such service shall be effected immediately after the 18th birthday of the person who is required to furnish a declaration pursuant to sub-section 1. The provisions of the Act to regulate service in administrative proceedings shall apply.

(6) The continuation or loss of German citizenship in accordance with this provision shall be determined ex officio. The Federal Ministry of the Interior may, by ordinance with the consent of the Bundesrat, issue provisions regulating the procedure to determine the continuation or loss of German citizenship.

Section 30

[Establishment of German citizenship]

(1) Possession or lack of German citizenship shall be established by the nationality authority upon application. The outcome of this assessment shall be binding in all matters for which possession or lack of German citizenship is of legal relevance. In the case of a public interest, possession or lack thereof may be established upon the competent authority's own motion.

(2) To establish possession of German citizenship it shall be required and sufficient to give reliable evidence that German citizenship was acquired and has not since been lost by furnishing documents, extracts from the citizens' registers or other written evidence. Section 3, sub-section 2 remains unaffected.

(4) The registration authority shall transmit the data referred to in sub-section 2 to the nationality authorities and diplomatic missions abroad upon their request insofar as knowledge of the data is necessary to discharge their duties relating to nationality law. The provisions of the Federal Data Protection Act shall apply to the transmission to other public bodies or for research purposes.

(5) The nationality authority shall transmit the data specified in sub-section 2 to the competent authority to which a person must report his/her current address or to the competent diplomatic mission abroad immediately after it has established that a person has been naturalised, retains German citizenship or has lost, renounced or never acquired German citizenship.

Section 34

[Opting procedure]

(1) With a view to implementing the opting procedure under Section 29, the authority to which a person must report his/her current address shall transmit the following personal data relating to persons who will reach 18 years of age in the following months and may lose German citizenship under Section 29 to the competent nationality authority:

3. former names,
4. given names,
5. sex,
6. date and place of birth,

SPAGNA

CÓDIGO CIVIL

Libro Primero. De las personas

Título Primero. De los españoles y extranjeros

Artículo 17.

Son españoles de origen:

a) Los nacidos de padre o madre españoles.

b) Los nacidos en España de padres extranjeros si, al menos, uno de ellos hubiera nacido también en España. Se exceptúan los hijos de funcionario diplomático o consular acreditado en España.

c) Los nacidos en España de padres extranjeros, si ambos carecieran de nacionalidad o si la legislación de ninguno de ellos atribuye al hijo una nacionalidad.

d) Los nacidos en España cuya filiación no resulte determinada. A estos efectos, se presumen nacidos en territorio español los menores de edad cuyo primer lugar conocido de estancia sea territorio español.

2. La filiación o el nacimiento en España, cuya determinación se produzca después de los dieciocho años de edad, no son por sí solos causa de adquisición de la nacionalidad española. El interesado tiene entonces derecho a optar por la nacionalidad española de origen en el plazo de dos años a contar desde aquella determinación.

Artículo 18.

La posesión y utilización continuada de la nacionalidad española durante diez años, con buena fe y basada en un título inscrito en el Registro Civil, es causa de consolidación de la nacionalidad aunque se anule el título que la originó.

Artículo 19.

1. El extranjero menor de dieciocho años adoptado por un español adquiere, desde la adopción, la nacionalidad española de origen.

2. Si el adoptado es mayor de dieciocho años podrá optar por la nacionalidad española de origen en el plazo de dos años a partir de la constitución de la adopción.

Artículo 20.

(Redacción según Ley 36/2002, de 8 de octubre, de modificación del Código Civil en materia de nacionalidad)

1. Tienen derecho a optar por la nacionalidad española:
 - a) Las personas que estén o hayan estado sujetas a la patria potestad de un español.
 - b) Aquellas cuyo padre o madre hubiera sido originariamente español y nacido en España.
 - c) Las que se hallen comprendidas en el segundo apartado de los artículos 17 y 19.
2. La declaración de opción se formulará:
 - a) Por el representante legal del optante, menor de catorce años o incapacitado. En este caso, la opción requiere autorización del encargado del Registro Civil del domicilio del declarante, previo dictamen del Ministerio Fiscal. Dicha autorización se concederá en interés del menor o incapaz.
 - b) Por el propio interesado, asistido por su representante legal, cuando aquél sea mayor de catorce años o cuando, aun estando incapacitado, así lo permita la sentencia de incapacitación.
 - c) Por el interesado, por sí solo, si está emancipado o es mayor de dieciocho años. La opción caducará a los veinte años de edad, pero si el optante no estuviera emancipado según su ley personal al llegar a los dieciocho años, el plazo para optar se prolongará hasta que transcurran dos años desde la emancipación.
 - d) Por el interesado, por sí solo, dentro de los dos años siguientes a la recuperación de la plena capacidad. Se exceptúa el caso en que haya caducado el derecho de opción conforme al párrafo c.
3. No obstante lo dispuesto en el apartado anterior, el ejercicio del derecho de opción previsto en el apartado 1.b de este artículo no estará sujeto a límite alguno de edad.

Artículo 21.

1. La nacionalidad española se adquiere por carta de naturaleza, otorgada discrecionalmente mediante Real Decreto, cuando en el interesado concurran circunstancias excepcionales.

2. La nacionalidad española también se adquiere por residencia en España, en las condiciones que señala el artículo siguiente y mediante la concesión otorgada por el Ministro de Justicia, que podrá denegarla por motivos razonados de orden público o interés nacional.

3. En uno y otro caso la solicitud podrá formularla:
 - a) El interesado emancipado o mayor de dieciocho años
 - b) El mayor de catorce años asistido por su representante legal.
 - c) El representante legal del menor de catorce años.
 - d) El representante legal del incapacitado o el incapacitado, por sí solo o debidamente asistido, según resulte de la sentencia de incapacitación.

En este caso y en el anterior, el representante legal sólo podrá formular la solicitud si previamente ha obtenido autorización conforme a lo previsto en la letra a del apartado 2 del artículo anterior.

4. Las concesiones por carta de naturaleza o por residencia caducan a los ciento ochenta días siguientes a su notificación, si en este plazo no comparece el interesado ante funcionario competente para cumplir los requisitos del artículo 23.

Artículo 22.

(Redacción según Ley 36/2002, de 8 de octubre, de modificación del Código Civil en materia de nacionalidad)

1. Para la concesión de la nacionalidad por residencia se requiere que ésta haya durado diez años. Serán suficientes cinco años para los que hayan obtenido la condición de refugiado y dos años cuando se trate de nacionales de origen de países iberoamericanos, Andorra, Filipinas, Guinea Ecuatorial o Portugal o de sefardíes.

2. Bastará el tiempo de residencia de un año para:

a) El que haya nacido en territorio español.

b) El que no haya ejercitado oportunamente la facultad de optar.

c) El que haya estado sujeto legalmente a la tutela, guarda o acogimiento de un ciudadano o institución españoles durante dos años consecutivos, incluso si continuare en esta situación en el momento de la solicitud.

d) El que al tiempo de la solicitud lleve un año casado con español o española y no estuviere separado legalmente o de hecho.

e) El viudo o viuda de española o español, si a la muerte del cónyuge no existiera separación legal o de hecho.

f) El nacido fuera de España de padre o madre, abuelo o abuela, que originariamente hubieran sido españoles.

3. En todos los casos, la residencia habrá de ser legal, continuada e inmediatamente anterior a la petición.

A los efectos de lo previsto en el párrafo d del apartado anterior, se entenderá que tiene residencia legal en España el cónyuge que conviva con funcionario diplomático o consular español acreditado en el extranjero.

4. El interesado deberá justificar, en el expediente regulado por la legislación del Registro Civil, buena conducta cívica y suficiente grado de integración en la sociedad española.

5. La concesión o denegación de la nacionalidad por residencia deja a salvo la vía judicial contencioso-administrativa.

Artículo 23.

(Redacción según Ley 36/2002, de 8 de octubre, de modificación del Código Civil en materia de nacionalidad)

Son requisitos comunes para la validez de la adquisición de la nacionalidad española por opción, carta de naturaleza o residencia:

- a) Que el mayor de catorce años y capaz para prestar una declaración por sí jure o prometa fidelidad al Rey y obediencia a la Constitución y a las leyes.
- b) Que la misma persona declare que renuncia a su anterior nacionalidad. Quedan a salvo de este requisito los naturales de países mencionados en el apartado 1 del artículo 24.
- c) Que la adquisición se inscriba en el Registro Civil español.

Artículo 24.

(Redacción según Ley 36/2002, de 8 de octubre, de modificación del Código Civil en materia de nacionalidad)

1. Pierden la nacionalidad española los emancipados que, residiendo habitualmente en el extranjero, adquieran voluntariamente otra nacionalidad o utilicen exclusivamente la nacionalidad extranjera que tuvieran atribuida antes de la emancipación. La pérdida se producirá una vez que transcurran tres años, a contar, respectivamente, desde la adquisición de la nacionalidad extranjera o desde la emancipación. No obstante, los interesados podrán evitar la pérdida si dentro del plazo indicado declaran su voluntad de conservar la nacionalidad española al encargado del Registro Civil.

La adquisición de la nacionalidad de países iberoamericanos, Andorra, Filipinas, Guinea Ecuatorial o Portugal no es bastante para producir, conforme a este apartado, la pérdida de la nacionalidad española de origen.

2. En todo caso, pierden la nacionalidad española los españoles emancipados que renuncien expresamente a ella, si tienen otra nacionalidad y residen habitualmente en el extranjero.

3. Los que habiendo nacido y residiendo en el extranjero ostenten la nacionalidad española por ser hijos de padre o madre españoles, también nacidos en el extranjero, cuando las leyes del país donde residan les atribuyan la nacionalidad del mismo, perderán, en todo caso, la nacionalidad española si no declaran su voluntad de conservarla ante el encargado del Registro Civil en el plazo de tres años, a contar desde su mayoría de edad o emancipación.

4. No se pierde la nacionalidad española, en virtud de lo dispuesto en este precepto, si España se hallare en guerra.

Artículo 25.

(Redacción según Ley 36/2002, de 8 de octubre, de modificación del Código Civil en materia de nacionalidad)

1. Los españoles que no lo sean de origen perderán la nacionalidad:

- a) Cuando durante un período de tres años utilicen exclusivamente la nacionalidad a la que hubieran declarado renunciar al adquirir la nacionalidad española.
- b) Cuando entren voluntariamente al servicio de las armas o ejerzan cargo político en un Estado extranjero contra la prohibición expresa del Gobierno.

2. La sentencia firme que declare que el interesado ha incurrido en falsedad, ocultación o fraude en la adquisición de la nacionalidad española produce la nulidad de tal adquisición, si bien no se derivarán de ella efectos perjudiciales para terceros de buena fe. La acción de nulidad deberá ejercitarse por el Ministerio Fiscal de oficio o en virtud de denuncia, dentro del plazo de quince años.

Artículo 26.

(Redacción según Ley 36/2002, de 8 de octubre, de modificación del Código Civil en materia de nacionalidad)

1. Quien haya perdido la nacionalidad española podrá recuperarla cumpliendo los siguientes requisitos:

a) Ser residente legal en España. Este requisito no será de aplicación a los emigrantes ni a los hijos de emigrantes. En los demás casos podrá ser dispensado por el Ministro de Justicia cuando concurran circunstancias excepcionales.

b) Declarar ante el encargado del Registro Civil su voluntad de recuperar la nacionalidad española.

c) Inscribir la recuperación en el Registro Civil.

2. No podrán recuperar o adquirir, en su caso, la nacionalidad española sin previa habilitación concedida discrecionalmente por el Gobierno, los que se encuentren incursos en cualquiera de los supuestos previstos en el artículo anterior.

Artículo 27.

Los extranjeros gozan en España de los mismos derechos civiles que los españoles, salvo lo dispuesto en las leyes especiales y en los Tratados.

Artículo 28.

Las corporaciones, fundaciones y asociaciones, reconocidas por la ley y domiciliadas en España, gozarán de la nacionalidad española, siempre que tengan el concepto de personas jurídicas con arreglo a las disposiciones del presente Código.

Las asociaciones domiciliadas en el extranjero tendrán en España la consideración y los derechos que determinen los tratados o leyes especiales.

LEY 52/2007, de 26 de diciembre, por la que se reconocen y amplían derechos y se establecen medidas en favor de quienes padecieron persecución o violencia durante la guerra civil y la dictadura

Disposición adicional séptima. Adquisición de la nacionalidad española.

1. Las personas cuyo padre o madre hubiese sido originariamente español podrán optar a la nacionalidad española de origen si formalizan su declaración en el plazo de dos años desde la entrada en vigor de la presente Disposición adicional. Dicho plazo podrá ser prorrogado por acuerdo de Consejo de Ministros hasta el límite de un año.

2. Este derecho también se reconocerá a los nietos de quienes perdieron o tuvieron que renunciar a la nacionalidad española como consecuencia del exilio.

[10] Si tratta di una delle modifiche al codice civile introdotte con la legge 36/2002. La finalità dichiarata della legge è quella di "facilitare la conservazione e la trasmissione della cittadinanza spagnola", in ottemperanza a quanto previsto nell'articolo 42 della Costituzione spagnola, che impegna lo Stato nella salvaguardia dei diritti economici e sociali dei lavoratori spagnoli all'estero e nel favorire il loro rientro in patria.

[13] Anche tale disposizione è stata introdotta con la legge 36/2002, sempre con l'intento di evitare la perdita della cittadinanza in modo automatico.
